MENRY DI MEGLIO, Army scrisi number 6855269, care of American Embessy, Office of Military Attache, Army Fost Office 696, care of Postmetter, New York, in December, 1947. Tel furnished no additional information concerning Master Sergeant HEERY DI MEGLEO.

Mr. RICHARD G. TORNSON, Czechoslovskien Desk Officer, Department of State, advised on hay 9, 1955, that he has ascertained from sources at the Department of State, available to him, that a person known as Kester Sergeant DI Maglio was at the American Embassy, Prague, Czechoslovskie, in 1947. Mr. JOHNSON further advised that he was unable to find any information to show that this Master Sergeant DI MEGLIO was at the American Embassy in 1939.

Mr. JOPESON also commented that in his opinion, it was improbable that the Master Sergeant DI MEGLIO referred to by him was at the American Embassy in Prague, Czechoslovskis, in 1939, because he was quite sure that this fact would be known to the State Department.

A search of the records of enlisted men and officers of the United States Army on active duty, as maintained at the Pentagon, disclosed no record of Master Sergosut DI NEGLIO, Army sorial number 6855269, according to information made available to SE MELVIN L. MONICOMERY on May 11, 1955.

On June 7, 1955, Kral Jamsie BlakeMone, Department of the Army, advised SE XAVIER F. CLARK that there is no specific file of attacks employees of United States Embassies unless they are public officials.

No record of Master Sergeant D1 K.GLIO, Frmy serial number 6855269, was located in the active and inactive files of the Poreign Service records of the Department of State, according to information made available by Mrs. DOROTIV MARSHALL, Clerk, Personnel Records, Department of State, on May 24, 1955, to SA JOSEPH W. SPEIGHER.

No record identifiable with Master Sergeant D1 M:GLIO was located at the Passort Office, Department of State, according to information made available to SA MENNETS J. HASER on May 23, 1955.
